WASHINGTON.

Alabama Election—A Handsome Republican Victory.

Political Prospects in Georgia, the Carolinas and Florida.

Despairing Reports from the Crops in Maryland and Virginia.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.

ALABAMA ELECTION.

Senator Warner arrived last night from Alabama, and gives the following as returns of the late election. The Republicans carried the First District by 4,000 majority; second, by 4,000; Third, by 2,000 majority; Fourth, by 6,000; Fifth, by 307; Sixth, by 500; Seventh, by 4,000; Eighth, by 2,000; Ninth, by over 6,000. Gibbs's majority in the State at the last election was 4,000. The popular majority this election will not fall below 14,000. There will be 30 Radical members in Alabama, all classes of citizens participating, and the Radical majority on joint ballot in the Legislature will be 20. The Democrats will not contest the election of Governor Smith, but will confine their efforts to the election of Democratic members. They will make no division in the party, and the Senator regards the State as certain for the Republicans in the future.

GEORGIA.

The latest reports from Georgia, but it will be impossible that the Democrats can carry the State at the next election.

CAROLINAS, FLORIDA AND ALABAMA.

Senator Abbott says that North Carolina, Alabama or even for the moment not Republican party in the next national struggle.

CROPS.

The crops are excellent in all parts of Alabama, Florida, Georgia and South Carolina. The harvest, which is over in the former States, is the largest ever known. In Virginia, so far south as Lynchburg, the harvest is now being gathered into the granaries. Complaints of the rains reach us from the lower parts of Maryland.

THE TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION of this city, numbering 500 members, will, after a long discussion, resolved to send delegates to the Labor Convention at Philadelphia next month.

POLITICAL.

The Indiana Association has taken measures to secure WITH SIMILAR establishment from Ohio, Illinois and Iowa, and concentration from those States who will return to vote this fall with the view of obtaining reduced rates of railroad fare.

SEE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—Resolutions to the effect that the Secretary of the Interior be instructed to withdraw all patents issued under the joint resolution of the 4th of July, 1866, granting lands to the States upon the condition of the Union Pacific Road, and that the Secretary of the Interior be instructed to sue the bonds, and thereby proceed to foreclose the mortgage, and that he be empowered to employ the services of counsel, were adopted.

GOVERNOR SWANN.

Governor Swann, of South Carolina, is here on business connected with the claims of the State of South Carolina.

SPRINGFIELD.

State Camp Meeting—The Weather—Death of a Son of the Secretary of Treasury—Shipping—Personal—Commissioner Delano—Assistant Secretaries, etc.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, August 14.

The State Camp-meeting, which opened on the 5th inst., is still in progress, and will continue for a week longer. The weather has been very favorable for the occasion, and the attendance has been large. The meeting is under the charge of Presiding Elder Edward Thomas, assisted by Rev. Dr. Gurley, Rev. Dr. Reed, Rev. Dr. Bannister, Rev. Dr. Goodfellow, Rev. Dr. Fisher, and other prominent clergymen of the Methodist Church. The meeting is conducted on the plan of the camp-meetings held in the woods, and the tents are arranged in the usual manner. The meeting is held in a beautiful grove, about a mile from the city, and is reached by the Chatham horse-cars. The grounds are well supplied with water, and the police arrangements are excellent. The meeting is largely attended by persons from all parts of the State, and from other States in the vicinity. Among the prominent persons present are Governor Oglesby, Secretary of State Harris, Auditor Brady, Treasurer Powell, Adjutant-General Haynie, Superintendent of Public Instruction Bateman, Secretary of the Board of Agriculture Dunlap, Secretary of the Board of Public Charities Hurlbut, Secretary of the Board of Equalization Bross, Secretary of the Board of Railroad Commissioners Wheeler, Secretary of the Board of Canal Commissioners Hall, Secretary of the Board of Trade Hay, Secretary of the Board of Pardons Hall, Secretary of the Board of Charities Hall, Secretary of the Board of Public Charities Hall, Secretary of the Board of Public Charities Hall, Secretary of the Board of Public

ADDRESS

TO THOSE

Nervous and Debilitated,

WHOSE HITHERTO HOPE HAS BEEN

Protracted from Hidden Causes,

AND

Whose Cases Require Prompt Treatment

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering, or have suffered from the solitary vice, which effects those it enslaves upon body and health? Do you feel weak, nervous, or unequal from a little active exertion, sensitive palpitation of the heart? Does your urine, or epididymis contain, at times, unnatural sediment and mucus? Do you feel pain, dullness, weakness, or dimness of vision? Do you have sudden flushes of heat? Is your memory leaving you? Is your mind unsatisfactorily fluctuating from one subject to another? Do you feel dull, lethargic, unequal to study, or business? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep restless or restless? Is the future of your life not brilliant? The results of your doubt and fears? Do you expect your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and sluggish, prone to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver—(physician). Have you rightful rights? Your fault lies in your brain, nerves, and have had false counsels, and you attribute this to (symptoms or liver complaint).

Boils, pimples, soft gums, unnatural discharges easily cured, and lowest charges are an equality of physicians.
